

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: ECOSOC

Paragraph #31 Session #2 (2003)

Full Text

Noting that the Economic and Social Council, at its substantive session of 2003, will devote its high-level segment to rural development, the Forum recommends that the Council, in formulating its conclusions, take into account the unique cultural identities of indigenous peoples and the necessity for their meaningful participation in the planning, implementation and evaluation of programmes dealing with rural development.

Area of Work

Economic and Social Development