

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: Member States

Paragraph #149 Session #9 (2010)

Full Text

The Permanent Forum urges States to review their policies on biofuel industries, which, in the name of remedying the impacts of climate change, are resulting in the deforestation of large forest areas and the displacement of indigenous peoples. That increases the vulnerability of indigenous communities and in particular of those living in voluntary isolation.

Area of Work

Environment, Human Rights