

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: Member States

Paragraph #80 Session #2 (2003)

Full Text

The Forum urges States to undertake and promote the expansion of their national health systems in order to provide holistic health programmes for indigenous children that incorporate preventive medical practices and family and community participation. States are urged to address the issues of malnutrition of indigenous children victimized by poverty by adopting special measures to ensure and protect the cultivation of traditional food crops.

Comments

Venezuela reports (2010) ...la construcción de seis (6) centros de medicina tradicional y terapias complementarias, denominados “centros de sanación shamánicas”...

Area of Work

Health