

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: Member states

Paragraph #64 Session #20 (2021)

Full Text

Furthermore, States should strengthen measures, systems and resources to effectively address all forms of violence against indigenous women, such as female genital mutilation; child marriage; sexual abuse; forced labour; modern slavery; domestic, institutional and political violence, including in the context of forced displacement; sexual exploitation; trafficking; armed conflict; and the militarization of indigenous lands and territories.

Area of Work

Human Rights, Indigenous Women and Girls, Indigenous Children and Youth