

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: Member States, UN entities

Paragraph #56 Session #18 (2019)

Full Text

The Permanent Forum notes the second World Conference of Indigenous Women, which will be organized in 2020 by the International Indigenous Women's Forum, in cooperation with regional indigenous women's networks and hosted by the Saimi Nisson Forum. The global agenda for promoting the rights of indigenous women in the context of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Fourth World Conference on Women and of the International Conference on Population and Development will be discussed at the World Conference. The Forum encourages Member States and United Nations entities to support the organization of the World Conference of Indigenous Women and the participation of indigenous women from all seven sociocultural regions.

Area of Work

Indigenous Women