

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: Member States

Paragraph #124 Session #18 (2019)

Full Text

In the discussion on reconciliation and intergenerational trauma, there was agreement that healing requires a return to culture and a relationship with the land. The Permanent Forum recommends that Governments support programmes led by indigenous peoples to address intergenerational trauma as a way of moving towards true reconciliation.

Area of Work

Reconciliation, Intergenerational trauma