

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: Member states

Paragraph #33 Session #21 (2022)

Full Text

The Permanent Forum encourages Member States and relevant subnational governmental bodies and agencies to ensure the allocation of funding for the establishment of appropriate institutions, including by establishing permanent linguist positions, to promote the conservation, revitalization, use and development of indigenous languages. Particular attention should be given to languages at risk of extinction.

Area of Work

Indigenous Languages