

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: Member States; UN entities

Paragraph #80 Session #22 (2023)

Full Text

The inclusion and full and effective participation of Indigenous Peoples, as beneficiaries and partners in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals, while avoiding negative impacts on their rights are essential. The Permanent Forum recommends that States and relevant United Nations entities cooperate with Indigenous Peoples to fully consider their situations during the midpoint review at the Sustainable Development Goals Summit in 2023, including in the preparations at the high-level political forum on sustainable development.

Area of Work

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), Enhanced Participation at the UN