

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: International community

Paragraph #138 Session #23 (2024)

Full Text

The Permanent Forum calls for increased investments in educational programmes and capacity-building initiatives that empower Indigenous Peoples to navigate legal and bureaucratic processes in managing their resources in keeping with their cultural and spiritual values and self-determined development. These initiatives should support the transmission of Indigenous knowledge and skills across generations, enhancing resilience and sustainability.

Area of Work

Capacity Building, Autonomy and Self-determination, Traditional Knowledge