

United Nations

UNPFII
Recommendations Database

Addressee: International community

Paragraph #141 Session #23 (2024)

Full Text

The Permanent Forum supports the initiatives that empower Indigenous women, recognizing their roles as custodians of biodiversity and Indigenous knowledge. Programmes should address the specific needs and leadership roles of women within Indigenous Peoples' communities in order to ensure equitable participation in all funded projects.

Area of Work

Indigenous Women, Participation